Why Abeokuta?

In the bustling landscape of Nigeria's urban centers, Abeokuta emerges as a beacon of promise and possibility. As the high urban population of Lagos continues to surge, fueled by rapid urbanization, the need for sustainable solutions becomes ever more pressing. Housing shortages, transportation woes, and environmental challenges loom large, demanding innovative approaches to urban development. Enter Abeokuta, a city poised to redefine the paradigm of modern living.

City of Firsts

Sacred heart Hospital

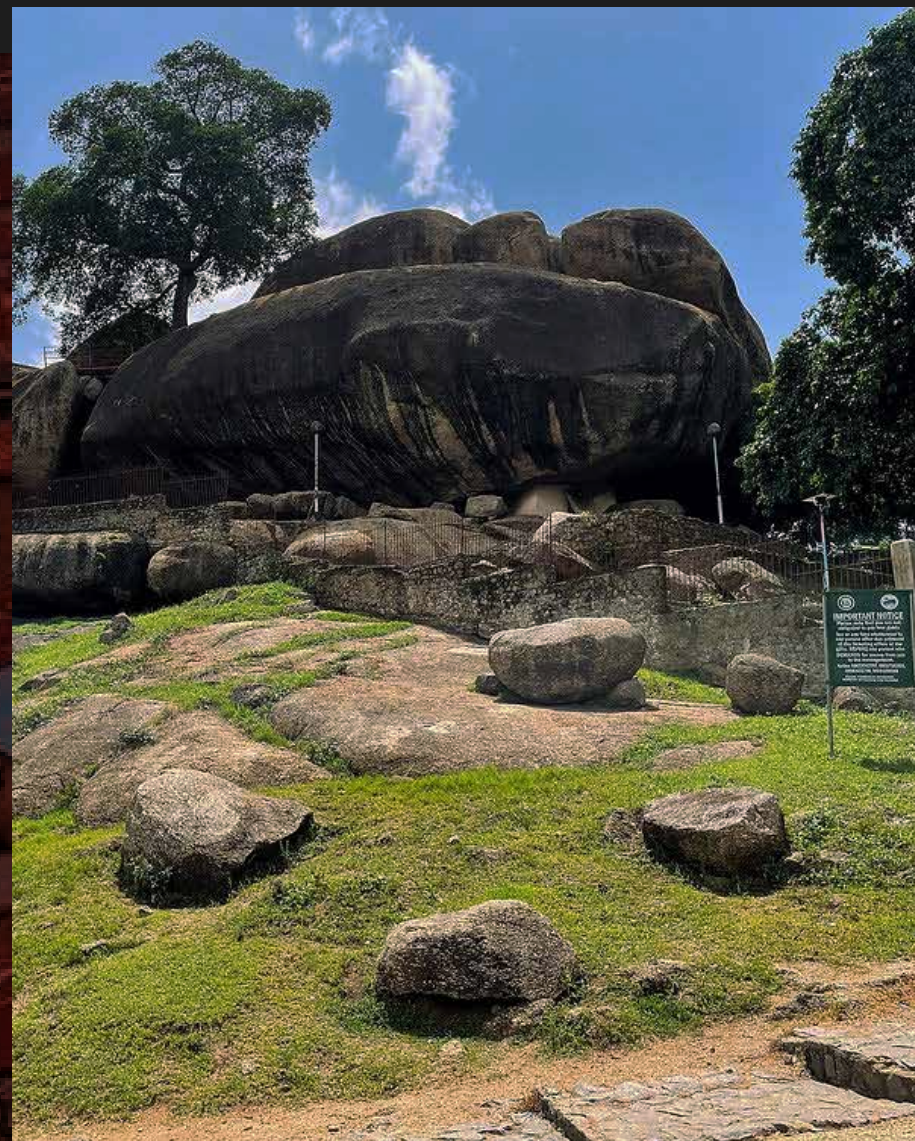

St. Peter's Anglican Church, Abeokuta

Proudly bearing the mantle of innovation, Abeokuta boasts the distinction of hosting the first hospital in Nigeria, the venerable Sacred Heart Hospital, which continues to serve the community with unwavering dedication.

Steeped in the legacy of faith and devotion, Abeokuta is home to the first church in Nigeria, St. Peter's Anglican Church, a testament to the enduring spirit of the city's inhabitants.

Abeokuta, a city steeped in history and tradition, serves as the beating heart of Ogun State and the pride of the Egba people. The very name "Abeokuta" echoes with significance, translating to "under the rock" in homage to the protective embrace of the iconic Olumo Rock. For generations, this ancient sentinel has stood as a guardian, offering sanctuary to the Egbas in times of strife. Remarkably, not a single soul has ever fallen from its towering heights, a testament to the enduring strength of the city's spirit. But beyond its storied past lies a vibrant tapestry of culture and heritage, woven from the threads of tradition and innovation. The people of Abeokuta are renowned for their resilience, their unwavering spirit, and their deep-rooted love for "Lafun" – the famed white amala crafted from cassava, paired with the savory embrace of ewedu. It is these simple pleasures, these timeless traditions, that form the bedrock of Abeokuta's identity, binding its inhabitants together in a shared tapestry of belonging.

It is with immense pleasure and pride that I present to you Victoria Metropolis, Abeokuta – a visionary and audacious project that marks a new era in the capital of Ogun State. This groundbreaking initiative is not just the first of its kind; it is set to redefine community living and standards within the state, ultimately boosting the economy and creating a legacy for future generations.

The vision of Victoria Metropolis, which spans over 100 acres of prime land, is to blend the beauty of natural landscapes with the marvel of modern architecture. This mixed-use project includes residential districts, service plots, commercial districts, and recreational areas, all meticulously designed by Nigeria's finest Architecture Design Firm; Spacemould, Led by Opeyemi Akodu. Spacemould is a Design firm that has supervised the master plan of reputable projects across the country and beyond. Our commitment to an eco-friendly environment ensures that Victoria Metropolis will be an architectural wonder, housing over 300 residents and generating numerous direct and indirect employment opportunities for the state.

My passion for this project stems from a deep belief in its potential to serve as a source of inspiration and economic growth. Once completed, Victoria Metropolis will stand as a testament to what can be achieved with visionary planning and unwavering dedication. It will promote investment and generate significant revenue for Ogun State, making it a beacon of progress and prosperity.

Victoria Metropolis represents a revolutionary approach to urbanization in Ogun State and Nigeria at large. Here, natural beauty will intersect with architectural brilliance to create a vibrant, thriving community. This project embodies the belief shared by Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid that anything is possible. Our goal is to create a premium living experience for the people of Ogun State and those in the diaspora.

Built from scratch, by the end of the planned 7-year development cycle, Victoria Metropolis is expected to become a bustling, innovative city, creating over 200 to 500 well-paying job opportunities. It is planned to accommodate a residential population of about 300 and attract more than 1,000 daily visitors. This city will also provide a world-class environment for domestic businesses, fostering a thriving commercial hub.

Therefore, I call upon all patriotic Nigerians and the people of Ogun State to join us in this remarkable journey of development. Together, we can build a futuristic legacy driven by passion and vision, harnessing the full potential of our state and nation.

Welcome to Victoria Metropolis, Abeokuta, a city that tells a story.

Welcome to Our Vision: Abeokuta's New Era of Urban Living.

We are thrilled to unveil our latest project, Victoria Metropolis: a mega self-sustaining city in the heart of Abeokuta, Ogun State. This ambitious development is set to redefine urban living by blending modern conveniences with nature's tranquility.

Spanning several hectares, Victoria Metropolis integrates residential, commercial, educational, and recreational spaces. This project is designed to create a community where residents can live, work, and play without compromising on comfort or environmental integrity.

Strategically located with access to major highways, our self-sustaining city ensures seamless connectivity to other parts of Ogun State and beyond. This prime location not only enhances convenience but also promises substantial economic growth and opportunities for businesses and individuals alike.

Our residential units combine luxury and functionality; each home features modern aesthetics and cutting-edge technology, catering to diverse lifestyles and incorporating energy-efficient systems to reduce both carbon footprint and utility costs.

For businesses, our commercial zones offer state-of-the-art facilities that foster innovation and growth. Be it a startup or an established corporation, our business district provides the infrastructure needed to thrive in a competitive market. We understand the importance of education and recreation, and as such, Victoria Metropolis includes top-tier educational institutions, recreational parks, and sports complexes, ensuring residents have access to quality education and a variety of leisure activities. Green spaces throughout the city promote a healthy, active lifestyle. Sustainability is at the core of our project. With renewable energy sources, water conservation systems, waste management, and green building practices, we aim to create a model urban environment that serves as an example for future developments.

This project is more than just a new development; it is a vision for the future of urban living. By fostering a community-oriented environment, we aim to enhance the quality of life for all residents while driving economic growth in Abeokuta.

We invite you to be part of this transformative journey. Whether seeking a new home, a place to grow your business, or investment opportunities, Victoria Metropolis offers unparalleled potential.

Welcome to a new era of urban living. Together, we can build a brighter, more sustainable future.

and arranged in a way that makes living a genuine pleasure. The Victoria Metropolis, our flagship smart city, is a first of its kind in the South West of Nigeria and we give our firm commitment that, along with all other properties we offer, it tells a story of excellence and life abundant in an abode of your dream.

THANNI-ABIOLA AYODEJI ADEYINKA

Operations Manager, Abeokuta.

For the most part, humans desire comfort, a serene environment, an assurance of security and the guarantee that the investment they hold is properly titled without contravention of government regulations. These and more are what we offer at 27th Development Limited. In our relatively short period of existence, our excellence, unblemished integrity and discipline in business shows clearly in our people in different cadre as we do not compromise on our integrity.

As a result, in all our offerings including the Veronica District I, Epe; Veronica District II, Epe; Giovanni, Ibeju and Victoria Metropolis along Sagamu/ Abeokuta Expressway, we offer the best features in terms of locations with captivating scenery, impeccably comfortable arrangement and a promise of luxury that is highly affordable. Our properties are perfectly priced

From the initial visit of the 27th Development Team, led by the CEO; Samuel Williams, to our Lagos Studio, our objective was clear: to design a metropolis in Abeokuta that serves as a cultural hub, promotes technological development, and offers a sustainable living experience. This vision includes a center for commerce and a haven for wellness.

After months of planning and numerous design reviews, we are proud to present what we have achieved.

At SpaceMould, we are committed to blending innovation with tradition. The design of Victoria Metropolis exemplifies this philosophy. Drawing inspiration from Abeokuta's deep historical roots and vibrant culture, we employed design elements that reflect this heritage in features ranging from the perimeter fence and approach gate to the cultural center and residences.

The legacy of Abeokuta, its notable icons, and unique traditions have significantly influenced the identity of Victoria Metropolis. From the ancient Olumo Rock, our architectural narrative weaves together the stories and symbols that have defined Abeokuta for generations. Notably, we have included an adire production hub, celebrating one of the city's major crafts.

The master plan of Victoria Metropolis encompasses a commercial/light production hub, residential areas, adire production hub, tech hubs, a vocational school, recreation centers, malls, restaurants, among other amenities.

Victoria Metropolis is designed to be more than just a collection of buildings and infrastructure. It is an experience where the echoes of our past harmonize with the aspirations of our future. The use of traditional materials, the celebration of local artisans, and the creation of spaces that foster community spirit all pay tribute to our heritage.

Victoria Metropolis is not just a place to live; it is a place to thrive. Here, the old and the new coexist in perfect harmony, honoring our past while embracing the possibilities of tomorrow. It stands as a testament to what can be achieved when we respect our roots and dare to dream big.

As we anticipate the growth and prosperity that Victoria Metropolis will bring, let us also appreciate the cultural richness that has shaped it. Together, we have created a city that symbolizes progress while guarding our heritage.

Thank you, and welcome to Victoria Metropolis.

The greatest creation God made is land and people. God gave us dominion over the earth to explore and create wealth. One of the key pillars to success is acquiring wealth to leave the world better than we found it. To achieve this goal, we must invest in permanent assets that can empower future generations. Real estate is a prime avenue for creating such opportunities.

Nigeria's prominence in the 1970s was due to the oil boom, a resource from the land. Other nations, like Saudi Arabia and the UAE, have successfully leveraged their land for tourism and hospitality, creating wealth and opportunities. Unfortunately, Nigeria has not fully utilized its vast mineral resources for its citizens' benefit. Whatever resources God has given us should be used to develop the future, just as other countries have done.

The second key to success is people. After creating the land, God created man to enjoy its resources. I preside over Orile-Ilawo in Ogun State, covering over 150,000 square kilometers. Despite our rich history, many descendants live in poverty because they haven't utilized real estate to prosper. God won't create wealth for us; we must do it ourselves. This is a wakeup call to use our land wisely and learn from history to understand the past, present, and future.

Empires like Rome and Britain understood that acquiring land was essential for wealth. Our pre-colonial and post-colonial history helps explain our current real estate situation. For example, parts of Lagos historically belonged to the Egba people, leading to ongoing debates about land ownership.

In 1988, I brought UK investors, Bovis Homes, to Lagos when there was no development beyond Victoria Island, and Lekki was a swamp. Today, Victoria Island is commercial, and Lekki is prime real estate. Back then, Lekki plots sold for N5,000, but today they are highly valuable. Investing in real estate now will pay off significantly in the future, especially in underdeveloped areas like Epe.

Our deal with the UK investors fell through due to land ownership disputes, but recently, they inquired again about the now-developed land. Nigeria can grow wealth exponentially with proper planning. 27th Development Limited is pioneering this potential in an emerging industry. As the oil and gas industry phases out, land will remain a lasting asset.

27th Development Limited's project aims to prosper and empower the people. We must innovate and think about the future to leave the earth better than we found it, focusing on real estate. Empowering people as we succeed is the utmost will of God. May 27th Development Limited succeed in empowering the nation through this laudable project.

Thank you.

ALAYELUWA OBA PROF. ALEXANDER OLUSEGUN MACGREGOR

This Project is by 27th Development is very big project and you can't have such a project in Ogun state without meeting with Governor. I will be happy to facilitate that meeting.

This project will help in boosting the economy of the state and I can't wait for the project to come to fruition.

I never knew that this project will be on a scale as big as this. I assumed it will just be the normal way people come to get land build normal estates, this is magnificent and I am impressed.
